TALITHA ROSE MUELLER (AGE 2)

"A-T," or Ataxia Telangiectasia is a progressive, degenerative disease that affects a startling variety of body functions. The first signs of this are the "wobbles" lack of balance and slurred speech caused by "Ataxia," (a lack of muscle control). In addition to Immune System Problems, High Predisposition to Cancer, and the Prognosis....early death. What treatments are available??? Come to learn much more and meet her!
